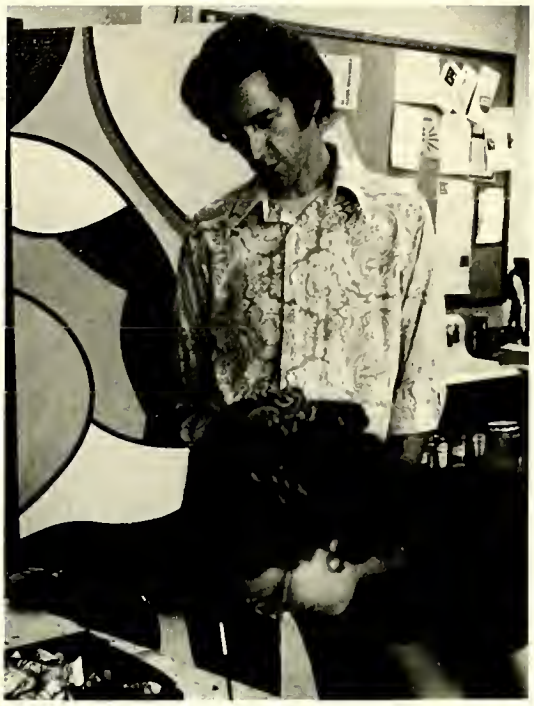
SCHAGE



That is good work. What is it?

I made an A on my test today.
It is the first since the fall of the Roman Empire.

You can tell a good dog-wood from its bark.

If I have told you once I have told you a thousand times . . .

The green wire over the red or is it the red over the green?

Anita the reindeer

Guess who's coming to dinner?

Excuse me just for a minute.

I am positive this is not Cumberland Dorm.

Honey, you're my Spirit of '76.
Let me salute you.

Let me make one thing perfectly clear . . .

Color Guard honors Methodist as Bicentennial Campus.

Methodist College has been designated a bicentennial campus by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration. Guided by a college bicentennial committee headed by Tony Mabb, Danny Hood and Prof. Parker Wilson, Methodist's plan will include all aspects of the three goals of the Bicentennial: heritage, festival and horizon.

Presentation of the bicentennial certificate and flag was made December 3. Also at this time, the Student Government Association unveiled a permanent display of the flags of the 13 original colonies which were purchased by various organizations on campus.
